Painting work at Velvadam Date: 30/12/2019

Painting is an art of expression, expressing the feelings of the people and these feelings can have various colours, so one of the colours which the Village people wanted to show the world was unity. SVR Project team started to interact with the villagers to make them aware about the importance and strength of Unity. So, these efforts of SVR team resulted in changing the mindset of the people to be united in the villages and this Untidiness can be reflected by seeing their households painted with the same colour and the same art form which was practiced in Indian culture from centuries. Various art forms are adopted by the various villages in SVR those are Kanimarla village has chosen Gondu art, Dasulapalem houses painted with Warli art, Sitarampuram with Patachitra art, Pinapaka and Vellaturu with Madhubhani art. These activities not only making the villages beautiful but also giving the message of establishing synergy and harmony in the society.

As a part of Village Beautification in Velvadam Rajasthani Art was done from 1/12/2019 – 30/12/2019
