

KLUNIVERSITY
KLUBUSINESS SCHOOL
WOMEN'S FORUM ACTIVITY FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

Women's forum of K I University Business School organizing different activities for girls to uplift their hidden talent and make them to be self -sustainable leaders in this competitive world on par with men.

In continuation of September activity, women's forum organized dancing competition on 26/10/2015 in Hall No.507 for girl students of MBA and BBA-MBA courses. Fifteen girls participated in solo performances and six teams are participated in group dance competition. Shalini of III BBA-MBA and D Jyotsna of II MBA secured I & II places in solo dance. Manaswita team from BBA and Maheswari team from MBA secured I & II places in group dance.

On the same day 'Debate competition was also conducted to enhance the spontaneity and decisive awareness among girl students. Debates allow students to become more proficient in speaking, researching, reading, and writing skills, and they promote reasoning as well as communication skills. Mounika and Melba stood in the I place from MBA, Vasari and Ayesha secured I place among BBA participants.

5

