BLOOD GROUPING

Description of the Event:

The aim of the event is to make villagers aware of their blood group making easier to match donors during medical emergencies. Most have not had access to such free blood testing services before while others do not understand the importance of knowing this vital information.

Working procedure:

- This campaign was done in Dasulapalem village parallelly to the health camp.
- Bio technology students were taken with us and this campaign was continued throughout the day.
- Every villager who has undergone this blood grouping were provided with a blood grouping card.

Benefits:

- Many villagers almost (70-80) were benefited by this campaign by knowing their blood group which is very much vital information.
- By knowing their blood group people could match donors when there are emergencies.
